Foreword

We publish this annual to picture the significant events of our school days, to provide a tangible record of the activities, pleasures, and memories of these days, and to bind even closer ties of friendship which have begun here at S. H. S.

In this, our last ROUNDHEAD, we wish to pay fitting tribute to the Old without which the New would be impossible. In this book we have recorded scenes of our present school so that when it has been changed, we who come back to a place of strange appearance may still remember the Alma Mater that we knew.

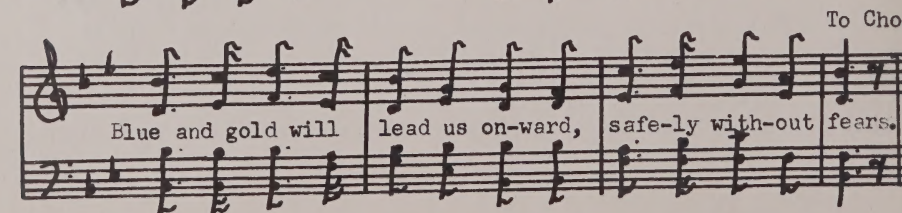

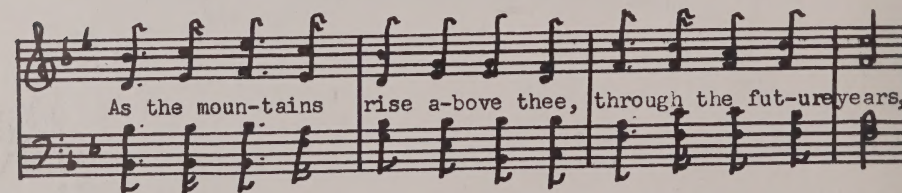

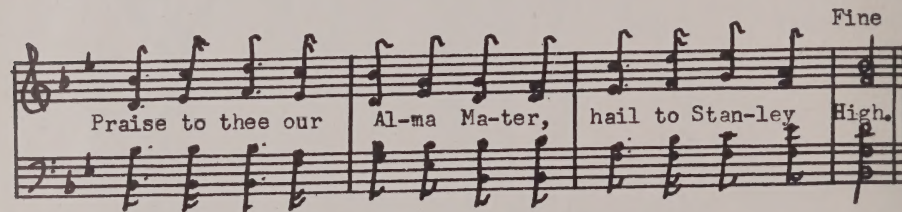

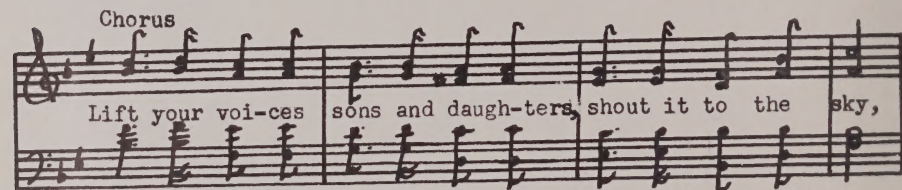

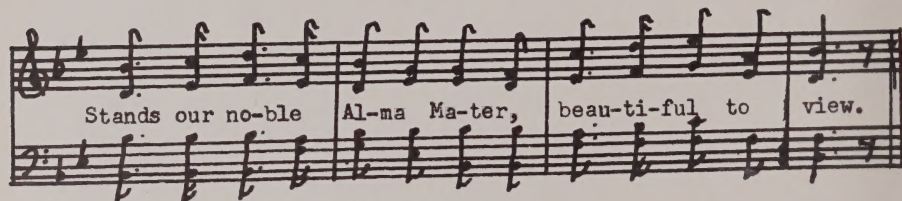

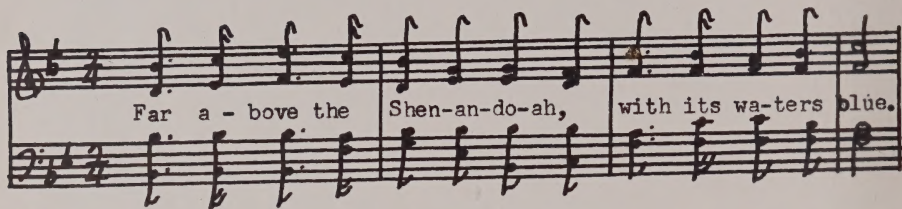

THE ANNUAL STAFF

DEDICATION

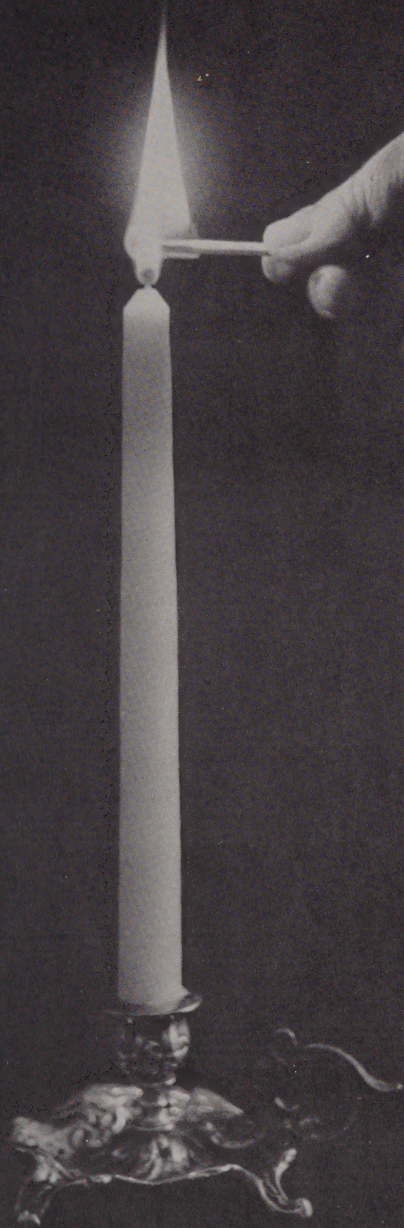

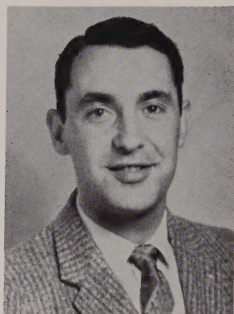

We proudly dedicate this, our last ROUNDHEAD, to ALL THE STUDENTS who have studied here and learned to love Stanley High as their Alma Mater . . . to OUR PARENTS who have encouraged and supported us during our twelve-years struggle to obtain an education . . . and to ALL THE CITIZENS OF OUR STANLEY COMMUNITY who have helped to make our school years memorable by their faith in us demonstrated in their support of our school programs.

Principal's Message

I have watched you work long, nerve-racking hours to meet publishing deadlines. Although you had very little time to work during school hours, you were determined not to let that bother you. Obstacles were pushed aside and you have achieved success. Congratulations!

This is the last annual that will be published for Stanley High School and you have done a superb job in writing its last pages of history.

To the whole student body and faculty, may I say, thank you for your whole-hearted co-operation and I hope that the rest of my career will be as pleasant and profitable as you have made it this year.

Good luck.

The Stanley Story

Many have helped in this effort to compile an authentic account of the Stanley Story. We trust that the farewell volume has been written with knowledge and honesty. But any labor of love may be flavored with dashes of sentimentality and mellowed by the mood of reminiscence.

MARKSVILLE DISTRICT. Following the opening of the New Market to Gordonsville Turnpike in 1840, Marksville was the emporium of trade. This turnpike was the major corridor of trade and products from this area were sold in Gordonsville. Regularly scheduled stagecoaches ran from New Market to Intersection and passed over the wooden covered Columbia Bridge at Alma and on through Marksville and through Fisher's Gap. Mileposts indicating distance from a given point were planted every mile along the way and some of the mileposts were still standing in 1910. The Columbia Bridge at Alma was burned in June 1862, by Gen. Stonewall Jackson during his Valley Campaign against Gen. Shields and Gen. Fremont.

Marksville was named for Mark Ruffner who was appointed its first postmaster in 1853. Prior to this date it was called Upperville. An excerpt from Court Records reads as, "Jan. 25, 1839 - Road from Isaac Long's mill to store at Upperville at a certain point in the Turnpike crossing the mountains." Marksville Station, located at Sands (Stanley) following the opening of the Shenandoah Valley Railroad in 1881, received mail which was carried to Marksville Postoffice and eastward on the turnpike to Mauck Postoffice.

MARKSVILLE BAND

STANLEY. Before 1881 a large part of the present area of Stanley was known as the Frederick Judy farm. Mr. Judy's farm extended from the present corporate limits on the east across the railroad tracks westward to the road leading southwest by the Methodist Church. It was a fertile area in an Alpine setting fringed by the Blue Ridge and the Tanner's Ridge chain of mountains which end in the imposing volcanic peak, the ROUNDHEAD. The elevation of the town is 1010 feet; however, the Roundhead rises 2050 feet above sea level.

On April 18, 1881, the first through train ran from Hagerstown to Waynesboro. Sands (Stanley) was mapped and named for Joseph Sands, General Superintendent of the Railroad. The PAGE COURIER, dated July 3, 1884, carried a timetable of the Shenandoah Valley Railroad. A professional notice of Dr. Wm. F. Hutchison, surgeon-dentist, dental rooms - Marksville Station, Virginia, ran in that issue.

In the Atlas of Shenandoah and Page Counties, 1885, Published by D. J. Lake and Company, the following heads of families and businesses were listed for Sands proper: J. H. Coffman, Dr. T. B. Amiss, Dr. Wm. Hutchison, F. M. Beidler, T. S. Brown, J. Dunaven, Richard Good, George Good, Isaac Short, J. P. Prince, A. J. Fultz, T. W. Shyrocks, Emmanuel Fultz, J. C. Cave, Wm. D. Knight, T. Offenbacher, Dave Burns, and Dr. Koontz.

By an Act of the General Assembly, approved Feb. 14, 1900, the town of Stanley was incorporated and was named for Stanley McNider, whose father, James McNider was president of the Stanley Furnace and Improvement Company. By 1890-91 eighteen tracts of land in the vicinity had been conveyed to the company. The boom was on.

Members of the General Assembly from the Stanley area have been Dr. H. M. Keyser, A. K. Grim, T. J. Graves, C. E. Graves, C. C. Louderback, and C. D. Price.

Doctors who have practiced in the vicinity have been Wm. F. Hutchison, H. C. Welfley, H. R. Finter, H. M. Keyser, F. L. Smith, Thomas B. Amiss, F. P. Koontz, and C. W. Trott.

AREA SCHOOLS. The evolution of public supported schools developed slowly from those financed by the Literary Fund to the acceptance of the theory that people must be taxed in order to provide educational facilities for other peoples' children. Finally the county established schools operating for terms of four or five months. Interested parents paid for extension of terms.

Prof. White's excellent school at Graves Chapel, in 1890, was an example of such a school.

The Rev. White's School, 1890, at Graves Chapel. Prof. White is second from the left, back row. Dr. H. M. Keyser, Supt. of Schools, is fourth from left, back row.

Prof. White, who was an applicant in 1891 for Superintendent of Schools, later taught in the Page Valley Academy, founded by Elder Dalton and located south of the present William Case house. Elder Dalton also published the STANLEY HERALD.

John W. Keyser, a teacher, recorded in his Diary:

1898 - Sept. 20 - I was at the Page Valley Academy when it opened this morning. B. B. White teacher. He had 38 pupils.

1898 - Sept. 27 - I taught school in the Page Valley Academy for Rev. White. Had 44 pupils. He moved from Luray to Stanley today.

1899 - May 20 - Went to Baccalaureate Sermon of the closing of Rev. B. White's School at Page Valley Academy. Sermon was preached by Lee Barrott.

1904 - March 1 - I sold my interest in Page Valley Academy to Rev. B. F. Purdham tonight. The building was then rented and used for a tax supported school. Later it was moved to a location on the Turnpike where it was used for a Masonic Hall.

1905 - Oct. 16 - They had 71 pupils at Stanley this morning.

1906-1961 STANLEY HIGH SCHOOL

Through the efforts of dedicated citizens and school administrators FOUR buildings have been erected upon the present school site.

Frame	1906	two stories	no auditorium
Brick	1916	three stories	auditorium on first floor
Brick	1933	present
Annex	1948	rooms and cafeteria.

On Feb. 17, 1906, Charles L. Dovel and Ettie and Jacob I. Dovel and Viola deeded to the School Board of Marksville District, No. 2, two acres of land for the sum of $150.00. This tract was located northwest of the public road leading from Stanley to Millcreek. The Dovel Brothers had purchased the land on Feb. 16, 1905, from Frank L. Holt and wife of the state of New York. Supt. C. E. Graves aided the local board in securing the building. This building was salvaged in 1916 and used to erect Mrs. Lester Painter's house.

Graduating Class 1912 J. M. Shuler, Principal

STANLEY SCHOOL DISTRICT. Supt. J. H. Booton took steps that led to the creation of a STANLEY SCHOOL DISTRICT that financed and erected in 1916 the first three-storied brick building. The State Board of Education on Oct. 11, 1915, designated that boundries of Marksville School District be so changed as to create a new district to be known as STANLEY SCHOOL DISTRICT, No. 7, of the County of Page. An abstract from said Board creating said district together with boundaries of said district being of record in the Clerk's Office of Page County (Deed Book 71, p. 65). The $10,000 bond issue carried in a special election held May 25, 1916. F. S. Kibler of Stanley, Commissioner of the Revenue of Page, was one of the signers of this affidavit. This building was salvaged during the summer of 1933.

1916-1933 Brick Building

Supt. Harry B. Hanger 1925-36

Supt. Harry B. Hanger, Principal H. E. Wakeman, Marksville School Board Member C. E. Judy, Town Councilman William Robinson and S. L. Bateman, Clerk of the School Board, negotiated plans that led to the erection of the main part of the present brick building. The building was financed by a $25,000 loan from the Literary Fund (Application for loan dated May 20, 1933), a temporary loan from the Farmers and Merchants Bank, and 30% of the cost of labor and materials from the Emergency Administration of Public Works. This was the last school building built in Virginia before the Federal Contribution was instituted carrying rather strict provisions concerning wages paid to labor. Consequently, the building cost less. A sinking fund levy of 30¢ repaid the Literary Loan in 15 annual installments.

Principal C. H. Price, School Board Chairman C. D. Price, Supt. C. C. Graves, PTA President the Rev. A. Kurtz Brubaker, and a committee composed of Mrs. E. J. Shuler, Mrs. H. L. Roller and Mrs. R. R. Huffman appeared before the Board of Supervisors to initiate plans for the ANNEX. A Special $60, 000 Bond Issue Election held June 22, 1948, carried for the purpose of building 6 additional rooms to the present school building at Stanley in Marksville District to be repaid with a 25¢ levy. However, the cost-plus construction totalled around $78,000. In the spring of '51 the students thrilled to the opening of our new cafeteria.

ATHLETICS at S. H. S.

In 1920, Miss Frieda Koontz built with the mechanical know-how of Carroll Shuler, John Strole, Melvin Kite and the Home Ec girls an outdoor Basketball Court. Interest flared - the famed Stanley Girls moved up to and won the state contest. Some of our able athletes - Esther Dean, Alice Cave Brown, Alice Wolfersberger, Edna Hackley, Dorothy Aleshire Farren, Louise Mitchell, Alda Redmond, Magdalene Hilliard McDaniel, Roy Mayes, Rufus Cave, Norlan Campbell, Glenn Smith, Howard Painter, Curtis Foltz, Kenneth Nauman, Nelson Painter, Bobby Owens, Susan Short, Margie Stillwell, Bruce Painter, James Glenn Smith, Jr., Alvin Painter, Leola Cave, Jane Heiser, Genevieve Koontz, Jeanette Aleshire, Dale Clatterbuck, Ann Lester.

"Buds," as its name implies, is amateurish and embryotic, but genuine nevertheless. Let's not allow our children to grow up without helping them to find themselves, to discover themselves. Let it not be said of them

"Full many a flower is born to blush unseen,
And waste its sweetness on the desert air."

KARL JENKINS, Instructor in English.

Mr. Jenkins guided his senior class in creative writing.

The Stanley SCA, developed under the leadership of M. Frieda Koontz, was so outstanding that Miss Koontz was asked to work with the State SCA.

The first cafeteria in Page Schools was started at Stanley in 1926 with Mrs. Ida Boude as manager.

Mrs. C. E. Judy was elected president of the first Stanley PTA which was organized in 1934.

Cog Finter, George Quaintance and Karl Jenkins produced many spectacular shows. Old-timers still recall the vivid and colorful "Bigtime Jamboree" and the graceful dancing of Jean Graves and George Quaintance.

TEACHERS IN STANLEY - '60-'61 - Alice Brien, Brownie Cave, Melvin Miller, Delores Wayland, Katherine Blevins, Edith Norman, Anna Housden, June Daly, Jean Ballard.

Formerly our curriculum geared to belles-lettres encouraged our graduates to enroll in college training. Of the 9 graduates, class of '28, 8 attended college, 2 completed Masters degree, 3 are now Page county teachers. Of the 37 graduates, class of '60, 2 who were voted most likely to succeed are now enrolled in college.

Finally "liberal Arts" integrated its program with vocational fields. We lost French, Latin, Home Ec and Agriculture; we added Boys' Coach '48, Music Director '49, Commercial Teacher '53, Girls' Phys Ed Instructor '54.

Graduates who burned the midnight oil now succeed in varied fields. And for 55 YEARS citizens, students, teachers have worked for Jefferson's ideal - the "diffusion of knowledge" which is the foundation of freedom and happiness.

My sincere congratulations to you, graduates of 1961. Working as your advisor and sharing in your activities have given me great pleasure.

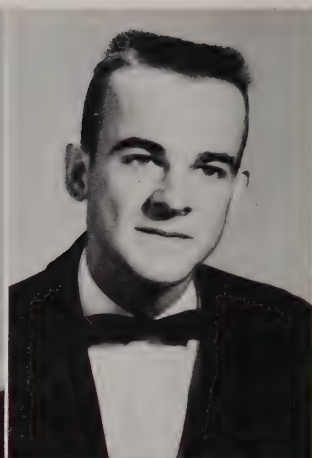

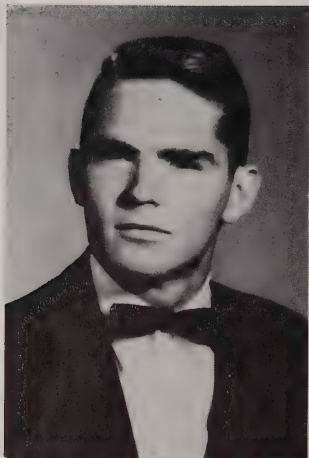

Your class has been outstanding for its academic accomplishments, excellence of leadership, and loyalty of spirit. The qualities which have contributed greatly to your splendid high school performance will be invaluable in the life you now enter.

The world of today is a profoundly challenging one. World-shaking discoveries are revolutionizing man's concepts of science, international law, and philosophy. What horizons lie before you as you leave Stanley High and begin a new phase of your life? My best wishes go with you.

Sincerely,

History of the Class of '61

When we, the members of the graduating class of 1961, think back over our days at Stanley High School, we remember many things. There are scores of experiences which we remember as individuals, but there are also many memories of our lives at S. H. S. which we all have in common.

We remember how proud we were of being Freshmen when our life at Stanley High School began in September, 1957. We elected our president, Jayne Freeze, and followed our tireless sponsors, Mrs. Jean Ballard and Mrs. Katherine Zigler, as they strived to lead the 47 members of our class through the joys and sorrows, success and failures that have always been companions of Freshmen, but which we considered to be exclusively ours. In retrospect the events of that year were relatively insignificant, but they were the foundation which we built upon in the ensuing years.

As Sophomores in 1958-59, 46 strong, we built the second chapter of our life at S. H. S. Our sponsors, Mrs. Jean Ballard and Mrs. Inez Lakey, graciously guided our steps as we strived toward our goals. Our class president was James Seal and the days passed in hard work in the classroom in order to be eligible to compete on the athletic teams, band, and to participate in the extracurricular activities of the school. We watched proudly as one of our classmates was crowned Miss Stanley. We crowned Queen Valentine 1959, at our Valentine Dance. As Sophomores we began to build on our Freshman foundation, doing things together as a class, and continuing on the long road to graduation.

Our life at S.H.S. was rapidly approaching its climax when 37 of us became Juniors, under the dedicated leadership of Mrs. Beulah Huffman. After electing Lois Cave our president we immediately began work that would lead to the realization of our goal--to give the Seniors the finest Junior-Senior Prom in S.H.S. history. After "working our fingers to the bone" both day and night to prepare for our prom, Judy Huffman was crowned Prom Queen during the evening of May 7, 1960, to the strains of "Fascination" as rendered by the Ambassadors of Luray. As far as we were concerned our goal had been attained. Our biggest thrill, however, came with the arrival of our new specially designed and standardized S.H.S. rings in March. This arrival was the signal which started the greatest time of "organized confusion" ever witnessed by our class. Our Junior year was one which saw our attempting bigger and better things than ever before, things which we would use as a steppingstone leading to our loftiest goal--to become Seniors.

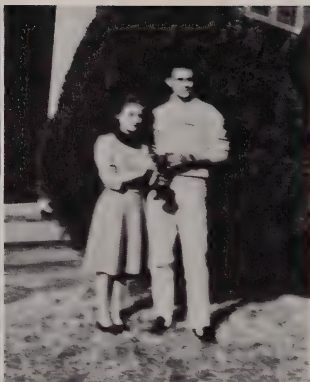

Finally the day arrived. In September, 1960, we became Seniors, 36 strong, with an eye towards graduation in June, 1961. We elected Robert Caton as our president and with Mrs. Huffman once again our sponsor, we put our best foot forward to meet the challenges which confront Seniors. We sold ads and worked hard to publish Stanley High School's best yearbook, the Roundhead of 1961. Many of the members of our class attended the Senior Day football game in Charlottesville between the University of Virginia and Virginia Military Institute. In November we sponsored the 1961 Miss Stanley beauty pageant, proudly crowning "our" Miss Stanley. Several members of our class sweated through the College Board Exams in December. We selected "Take the world as you find it, but leave it better," as our class motto, ordered our invitations, crammed for exams, and cheered lustily for our winning basketball team. Several of our classmates attended the Beta Club Convention in Richmond, at which our chapter president, Roger Baker, took part in the program. Truly, our senior year was busy and exciting, but the most exciting and important night of our whole life at S.H.S. came in June, 1961, when we graduated. We have traveled a long and hard road, but we who have successfully "run the race" are proud to hail Stanley High School, our Alma Mater.

People We Appreciate

MRS. ERMA DINGES

In this, our 1961 ROUNDHEAD, we acknowledge our admiration and deep appreciation to MRS. ERMA DINGES who has cheerfully and efficiently fed the students of S. H. S. for so many years.

Mrs. Dinges began her career as "Our Cook" 22 years ago, working in the small lunch room which we now know as Room 23. In 1938 the cafeteria was moved to the basement near our present bandroom. It was here that the Class of '61 first tasted Mrs. Dinges's specialty--her delicious bean soup. In the spring of 1951 Mrs. Dinges proudly moved into our present cafeteria. Here she was joined by Mrs. Frances Dovel and later Mrs. "Kay" Huffman.

We thank you, Mrs. Dinges, for all your help and kindness to us during our school days, and we hope that you will have many more happy years as "Cook" at Stanley School. We will never forget you nor the delicious meals at S. H. S.

MR. RAYMOND KEYSER
